6-series lithium battery pack protection IC

Overview

The bq76PL536A-Q1 device is a stackable battery monitor and protector for three-to-six lithium-ion cells in series. What is a lithium-ion battery protection IC?

For general use | For automotive A lithium-ion battery protection IC is an IC that monitors overcharge, overdischarge, and overcurrent to protect lithium-ion batteries, ensuring safe operation. ABLIC has been developing and producing lithium-ion battery protection ICs since 1993, and has a track record of over 30 years in the industry.

Who makes lithium-ion battery protection ICs?

ABLIC has been developing and producing lithium-ion battery protection ICs since 1993, and has a track record of over 30 years in the industry. We offer a diverse lineup of approximately 2,100 battery protection ICs covering a wide range of cell counts, applications and protection functions.

What is a battery protection IC?

1. ABLIC's Battery Protection ICs Battery protection ICs protect batteries from hazards such as overcharging, overdischarging and overcurrent. ABLIC has been developing and producing battery protection ICs since 1993, and has a track record of approximately 30 years in the industry.

What is ABLIC battery protection IC?

ABLIC's battery protection ICs for multi-cell pack: Our vast product lineup provides strong support for developing safety-critical battery packs with secondary protection and other features to suit customer needs such as smaller, lighter, and thinner applications and the cascade connection of a large number of battery cells in series.

How to detect a rechargeable lithium ion or lithium-polymer battery?

The overcharge, overdischarge, discharging overcurrent, charging overcurrent, and short protection of the rechargeable Lithium-ion or Lithium-polymer battery can be detected. Each of these IC composed of four voltage detectors, short detection circuit, reference voltage sources, oscillator, counter circuit and logical circuits.

What is Infineon battery protection?

For that, Infineon offers a wide range of battery protection solutions that, under stressful conditions, increase lifetime and efficiency of lithium batteries. The battery protection circuit disconnects the battery from the load when a critical condition is observed, such as short circuit, undercharge, overcharge or overheating.
