Assembling an outdoor power supply for camping

Overview

Can I use a battery box/solar generator when camping?

We've built a powerful and portable battery box/solar generator that can easily be used when camping in our RoofTop Tent or having it as an emergency backup system for our home. This DIY project will help you create a custom power station that suits your needs, providing ample energy for various devices during your camping adventures.

What battery does my DIY power station use?

My DIY power station has 1,464 watt hours of energy using a 122 amp hour flooded lead-acid battery from Wal-Mart. This battery is no longer available, however you will find alternative 100 amp hour AGM and LiFePO4 batteries linked below.

What should I consider when building a DIY solar power station?

One important factor to consider when building this DIY solar power station: Since I've gone with a flooded lead-acid battery, it is extremely important to not drain the capacity past 50%. This is due to something called depth of discharge (D.O.D).

Which rigid toolbox should I choose for my solar power station?

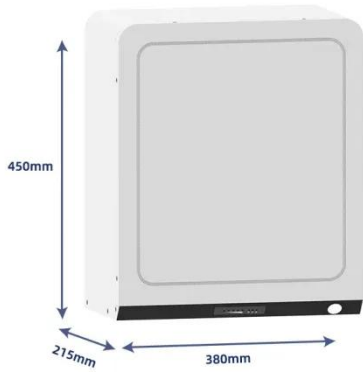

The solar suitcase, known for its quality construction, complements the battery perfectly. For the enclosure of our power station, we opted for the Ridgid 22-inch toolbox. This toolbox, part of a stacking set, provides an ideal housing for the battery and associated components.
