Does Switzerland levy customs duties or charges on exportation?

Switzerland does not levy any customs duties or charges upon exportation. However, customs duties or charges may apply in the country of destination – ask the authorities of the country of destination about this. The FOCBS provides the e-dec web and e-dec Export platforms.

How do I export goods from Switzerland?

Merchandise that is exported from Switzerland must be declared to Swiss Customs in writing or electronically. An overview of the export procedure is provided below. You can carry out the listed steps yourself or, if necessary, appoint a service provider (haulage firm, courier company, customs clearance agency) for some or all of the procedure.

What are the procedures for temporary exportation and re-importation?

There are separate procedures for temporary exportation and re-importation and for temporary admission abroad: Customs declaration for temporary admission ZAVV and/or ATA Carnet. The goods are not altered abroad. Typical applications include trade fairs, exhibitions, horses, vintage cars, etc.
