Brazil on energy storage systems

Overview

How will energy storage regulation shape Brazil's energy future?

By advancing energy storage regulation, the agency seeks to enhance system efficiency, accommodate renewable energy growth, and empower stakeholders across the energy sector. ANEEL opens the second phase of Public Consultation on energy storage regulation to shape Brazil's energy future.

Will Brazil conduct the first energy storage auction?

Brazil is set to conduct the country's first-ever energy storage auction for adding batteries and storage systems to the national power grid.

Will Brazil install a battery energy storage system in 2024?

A study by Brazilian consultancy Greener has indicated that the country installed 269 MWh of energy storage capacity in 2024, growth of 29% from 2023. Demand for battery energy storage system (BESS) components grew 89% in Brazil from 2023 to 2024 and most of the resulting systems are likely to be installed in 2025.

What is driving Brazilian energy storage demand?

An unreliable grid is driving Brazilian energy storage demand. The world is set to have more than 760 GWh of energy storage capacity by 2030, led by Chinese and United States markets dominated by utility-scale systems.

Can Brazil be a big battery storage country?

With well-designed policies and regulations, Brazil has significant potential to follow in the footsteps of jurisdictions like California and Chile for large-scale battery storage, Germany for distributed and large-scale storage, and Australia for both pumped hydro and large-scale battery systems.

Can foreigners invest in battery storage businesses in Brazil?

Investment, incentives and taxation scenarios According to Brazilian law, there are no legal restrictions on direct foreign investment in the battery storage businesses or in the power sector (except in very specific segments or sectors of the economy).
