Castries BESS Outdoor Power Supply

Overview

Do Bess products need an external power supply?

Most BESS products on the market require an external power supply circuit for their auxiliary loads, although some have built-in circuits and do not need an external supply.

What auxiliary loads are needed for a Bess project?

Fire safety systems, such as fire alarms, control panels and gas ventilation systems (if present). These auxiliary loads are essential for ensuring the safe and efficient operation of BESS projects. Therefore, providing a reliable power supply for these auxiliary loads is crucial.

Does Bess require uninterrupted power?

Some BESS suppliers mandate uninterrupted power to maintain the operation of thermal management systems, ensuring battery temperatures remain within desired limits to minimize degradation. BESS fire safety standards, such as NFPA 855, outline minimum requirements for backup power for fire safety systems.

Do I need backup power for a Bess auxiliary load?

For certain projects, backup power must be provided for the BESS auxiliary load as required by the BESS supplier or fire codes. Some BESS suppliers mandate uninterrupted power to maintain the operation of thermal management systems, ensuring battery temperatures remain within desired limits to minimize degradation.

What are the technical requirements and financial implications of Bess auxiliary power?

One critical but often overlooked aspect of BESS project development is the technical requirements and financial implications of BESS auxiliary power. In addition to the power required to charge its batteries, a BESS also requires power for its auxiliary loads. BESS auxiliary loads typically fall into the following three categories:

What are auxiliary power supplies?

This includes auxiliary power transformers, switchboards and cables. The auxiliary power supply circuit must be designed to meet the BESS product's technical requirements, which vary by product. For example, the rated voltage of the auxiliary power supply might be 400V, 480V, or 208V.
