What type of plugs does Kosovo use?

Kosovo uses power outlets and plugs of types C & F. Take a look at the pictures below to see what these plugs and power sockets look like: Do the outlets look different in your country?

You'll need a power plug adapter. Type C - The standard European plug. Commonly used in Europe, South-America and Asia, but also in quite a few other countries.

What voltage does a power socket work in Kosovo?

All power sockets in Kosovo provide a standard voltage of 230V with a standard frequency of 50Hz. You can use all your equipment in Kosovo if the outlet voltage in your own country is between 220V-240V. This is the case in most of Europe, Australia, the United Kingdom and most countries in Africa and Asia.

Do I need a voltage converter in Kosovo?

If the standard voltage in your country is in the range of 100V-127V (which is most common in the US, Canada and countries in South America) you might need a voltage converter in Kosovo. The standard frequency in Kosovo is 50Hz. If this frequency differs from the frequency used in your home country, please use caution when plugging in your devices.

Which plugs fit in a Type F socket in Kosovo?

Plugs of type C and E will also fit in a type F socket. If you're not sure whether the outlets and plugs used in your country are the same as in Kosovo, you can use the tool at the top of this page to check if you need a travel adapter. All power sockets in Kosovo provide a standard voltage of 230V with a standard frequency of 50Hz.

Does a portable power station have a 220V AC output?

Expandability options can greatly enhance the versatility of your portable power station with 220V AC output. Many models allow you to connect additional battery units, significantly extending your backup power duration.
