Outdoor communication power supply BESS in the city

Overview

Do Bess products need an external power supply?

Most BESS products on the market require an external power supply circuit for their auxiliary loads, although some have built-in circuits and do not need an external supply.

Does Bess require uninterrupted power?

Some BESS suppliers mandate uninterrupted power to maintain the operation of thermal management systems, ensuring battery temperatures remain within desired limits to minimize degradation. BESS fire safety standards, such as NFPA 855, outline minimum requirements for backup power for fire safety systems.

What auxiliary loads are needed for a Bess project?

Fire safety systems, such as fire alarms, control panels and gas ventilation systems (if present). These auxiliary loads are essential for ensuring the safe and efficient operation of BESS projects. Therefore, providing a reliable power supply for these auxiliary loads is crucial.

Do I need backup power for a Bess auxiliary load?

For certain projects, backup power must be provided for the BESS auxiliary load as required by the BESS supplier or fire codes. Some BESS suppliers mandate uninterrupted power to maintain the operation of thermal management systems, ensuring battery temperatures remain within desired limits to minimize degradation.

What if a Bess product does not meet backup power requirements?

If a BESS product cannot meet these backup power requirements as mandated by the code or the Authority Having Jurisdiction (AHJ), an external backup power source needs to be provided. Options for backup power include local distribution network feeders (if available with sufficient kVA rating) or backup generators.

Why is auxiliary power important in Bess project design & development?

As discussed above, auxiliary power is a vital consideration in BESS project design and development. While it is an important aspect, a comprehensive approach, such as the total cost of ownership method, should be used for BESS product evaluation and selection.
